

Albert Donald
Non-Executive Board Member

Albert Donald is a former senior Police Officer who retired in 2010 after serving almost 39 years across the north east of Scotland. Following his retirement from the service, he was appointed as Independent Chair of several Adult Protection Committees, fulfilling this role until December 2018. He is a Lay Member of NHS Education for Scotland and is a Match Delegate for the football authorities in Scotland. He also undertakes work on an independent basis advising on risk and risk management, as well as fulfilling several voluntary roles in his local community. He brings to the Board experience of leadership in a large public sector organisation, change management and partnership working along with experience of governance, accountability and scrutiny.