

Steven Lindsay
Employee Director, Non-Executive
Board Member

Steven has worked for the NHS since 1997, working as an Orthotist in Inverness, Oldham and Salford, before joining NHS Grampian's Mobility and Rehabilitation Service in November 2005.

He was involved in promoting his profession, having been the Chairman of the British Association of Prosthetists and Orthotists, the UK Professional Body, from 2005 to 2007.

Having been a staffside rep for Unite the Union since 2010, he became a Partnership Rep in 2012. Since 2018, Steven has been a member of the Scottish Workforce and Staff Governance Committee and is involved in the Once for Scotland Workforce Policies Programme, which aims to refresh and standardise the staff management policies across NHS Scotland.

Following an election process in April 2022, Steven was appointed to the Employee Director role, officially taking on the role on 1 September 2022.
